

TREE ENEMIES INFEST AMERICA, SAYS GROWER

Prof. Smith Delivers Closing Lecture to Nut Growers.

The sessions of the two-day convention of the Northern Nut Growers' Association will end today.

Members of the association, pioneers of the nut industry, which is still in the experimental stage, yesterday visited the many beautiful walnut trees of Washington, and attended morning and evening sessions in the New National Museum.

Prof. J. Russell Smith, of the University of Pennsylvania, president, spoke on how the industry will be helped by the experimental stage, yesterday visited the many beautiful walnut trees of Washington, and attended morning and evening sessions in the New National Museum.

DISPOSAL OF GUARD PUZZLES DEPARTMENT

Secretary of War Baker, when seen yesterday, could not state whether the District National Guard organization now in Camp Ordway, will be sent to the border, mustered out, or held in camp.

This would seem to indicate that the disposition of the District troops is not yet determined, and that any statements that have been made as to their departure at any definite time are rumors.

One officer at the War Department gave as his personal opinion that all the militia would be mustered out in six weeks.

PIMPLES RUIN THE BEST COMPLEXION

Why Endure Them When Cuticura Will Quickly Remove Them? Trial Free by Mail.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are not only most valuable for the treatment of pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness, dandruff and irritated scalps, but their great mission is to prevent such conditions. Cuticura Soap used exclusively for the toilet and Cuticura Ointment occasionally, will keep the skin and scalp clean, clear and healthy.

"My face and neck were ruined with pimples and blackheads. The pimples were hard and red, and would itch and burn so badly I could hardly sleep at night. When I scratched them, eruptions as large as a pea began to come on my face, and I was ashamed to go out doors. My whole face was disfigured."

"I had been suffering about five weeks before I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment. A free sample gave me relief so I bought more, and one box of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment completely healed my face."

(Signed) Andrew Hurd, 4 Maggie St., Montgomery, Ala., April 6, 1916.

For Free Trial by Return Mail address postcard, "Cuticura, Dept. H, Boston." Sold throughout the world.

UNION TRUST CO.

EDWARD J. STELLWAGEN, PRES.

Every Lady

We want every lady of our city to feel free to make use of our special facilities provided for their use, and to call upon us for banking service of any nature.

We especially welcome the accounts of women.

3% on Savings 2% on Checking Accounts.

LOST--Saturday, Sept. 2nd. Small Brown Purse

Containing three pieces of jewelry. No questions asked. JOHN S. C. HARVEY, 619 Arch street, Philadelphia. One three-dollar diamond ring in platinum, one cluster diamond ring in gold, one diamond brooch, oval shape, set in platinum.

SUMMER RESORTS.

ATLANTIC CITY.

MONTICELLO

EXCELS IN COMFORT, SERVICE AND CUISINE. Kentucky Ave., near Beach and all attractions. 300 rooms; running water; private baths. Bathing, swimming, tennis, golf, etc. Open all year. On the ocean front.

THE BREAKERS

ON THE OCEAN FRONT. OPEN ALL YEAR. Atlantic City's newest and finest fireproof hotel. Rooms, single or en suite, with or without private bath. All bathrooms equipped with running water and cold sea and fresh water. The only hotel in Atlantic City, facing the Grand View at New Jersey Avenue and Boardwalk. The last word in modern hotel equipment and service. Under the Personal Management of

JOEL HILLMAN, OF HARVEY'S RESTAURANT.

Try CLARENDON HOTEL

VIRGINIA AVENUE, NEAR BEACH. All modern improvements. Reasonable rates. Booklet.

HAS NO BEAU, KILLS SELF.

Pretty Stenographer Slashes Her Throat With Knife.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 8.—Despondent because she never had a beau, Anna Lehberger, 17 years old, a pretty stenographer in a brokerage office, slashed her throat with a butcher's knife and died fifteen minutes later.

The girl never had any male companions and, according to neighbors, had lamented the fact. When she went out for entertainment she was accompanied by her sister or a girl companion.

MAJ. COOPE ORDERED TO MEXICAN BORDER

District Adjutant General Becomes Leader of Third Brigade.

Maj. Harry Coope, adjutant general of the District National Guard, who was ordered yesterday to proceed to Nogales, Ariz., to become brigade adjutant general of the Third Brigade of the Sixteenth Division, will leave Sunday.

The Third Brigade consists of the Idaho regiment of infantry, the Montana regiment of infantry, and the First Separate Battalion, N. G. D. C., and a signal corps battalion consisting of the District company and the California company.

The District Hospital Corps has been assigned to the Sixteenth Division.

Troop A and the detachment of First Separate Battalion, colored recruits, were reported to Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood yesterday by Capt. Horace Hobbs, U. S. A., mustering officer, as up to minimum strength and equipped fully for the field and semi-permanent camp, without animals. These organizations, too, may be ordered to the border at any time.

With two more men Battery A will be up to minimum strength, and Capt. Hobbs will report it ready for border service.

Lieut. William L. Tydings, Third Infantry, will act as adjutant general for Brig. Gen. William E. Harvey when Maj. Harry Coope leaves.

EXODUS OF MEMBERS FOLLOWS ADJOURNMENT

Hotel Keepers Mourn the Loss of Official Trade

A general exodus from the Capital began yesterday with the adjournment of Congress and up to last night over 500 members had left Washington for the journey to their voting districts. Hundreds of others will leave today and tomorrow, and the hotels and houses of office buildings look like miniature deserted villages.

Hotel keepers and tourist agents estimate that the folding up of tents by Congress will bring the number of departing travelers up to the 2,500 mark before another week. This includes all those who have been interested in pending legislation and have remained in the Capital until the closing hour.

Hotel proprietors regret the adjournment since it has an immediate and marked effect on the hotel registers. Homeowners and tourists who include Washington in their pleasure tours find one of the main attractions missing without waiting a season and postpone visits accordingly.

There was plenty of money in evidence in the city last night for all of the Congress received a full month's pay for the September service, which landlords, boarding house proprietors and small merchants generally shared.

POSTMEN IN MILITIA TO BE REINSTATED

Postoffice employees who are in the militia will be reinstated in their jobs immediately upon their muster out, according to an order issued yesterday by Postmaster General Burleson. He reminded postmasters that each employee who might be mustered out, when twelve regiments recently returned from the border are returned to State status, should immediately be reinstated in the same position and at the same salary held by him at the time he left the postal service to enter military service, without awaiting the formal approval of the Postoffice Department.

DUTCH HIT ZEPPELIN.

Attack Airship Flying Over Schier-Mornkoof Island.

Amsterdam, Sept. 8.—According to the Telegraaf, a Zeppelin coming from the northwest was fired on by Dutch soldiers when passing over Schier-Mornkoof Island.

The air vessel was hit near the rudder. Lack of modern guns in the hands of the Dutch prevented them from shooting effectively.

Go To BERMUDA

Cooler Than Middle Atlantic Coast Resorts

For Your Vacation 8-Day Tours 42.50 & Up

Including All Expenses—Steamer, Hotel and Side Trips.

All Outdoor Sports, Including Golf, Tennis, Boating, Fishing, etc.

S. S. "Bermudian"

Sails from N. Y. alternate Weds. and Sat.

For booklet apply to Quebec S. S. Co., 22 Broadway, New York; Moss Steamship Agency, 211 14th st., or any Ticket Agent.

Hotel Marie Antoinette

Broadway, 66th and 67th Sts. NEW YORK CITY

SITUATED in the most convenient location in town. Modern in every detail; absolutely fireproof; within ten minutes of the leading department stores, shops and theaters. Convenient to Pennsylvania and Grand Central depots.

Rooms, with Bath, $2.50 Per Day Up.

Suites, $4.00 Per Day Up.

Rooms, $1.50 Per Day Up.

Restaurant of Unusual Excellence.

H. STANLEY GREEN, MANAGING DIRECTOR.

BRITAIN WILL DEMAND CANADIAN PAPER PULP

England's Attitude Will Deprive United States of Trade.

The serious situation that has arisen in connection with the paper supply in this country, says "P. M. G." in the Pall Mall Gazette, is complicated by the fact that Canada has an abundance of pulp and is eager and anxious to obtain facilities for its transport to the market where it is most urgently needed, and to which patriotic Canadians would most readily send it.

At the present moment the great market for Canadian pulp and paper is the United States. While Great Britain is importing pulp and paper from neutral countries, Canada is compelled to sell elsewhere.

The Hon. P. Pelletier, agent general for Quebec, in the course of an interview with a representative of the Pall Mall Gazette, expressed the opinion that a strong case would be made by the government to encourage this trade between Canada and the mother country.

Paper Comes to America.

"There are," he said, "eighteen pulp mills in the province of Quebec, but the bulk of the produce of these mills goes to the United States. It is practically the only market they have, although very many of them are anxious indeed to do business with this country."

"Although freights are higher to this country than to the United States, that would not prevent a big development of the trade. It is in the hands of the government to encourage this trade between Canada and the mother country."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

STORM HITS ORDWAY.

Tears Open Y. M. C. A. Tent, Damaging Furniture.

The thunderstorm of yesterday afternoon, although it was not very severe, damaged tents at Camp Ordway.

The big seventy-five-foot Y. M. C. A. tent was raised by the wind and torn in two, letting the rain drive in upon the writing tables and other furniture in the tent.

Tent flies in front of regimental headquarters and the camp canteen were blown down.

HUGHES CALLS HIMSELF FRIEND OF LABOR MEN

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.

might as well end the forms of government if we are to enter upon that path of disaster."

Today the Republican nominee, confronted by an audience of workmen in Lewiston, where Roosevelt spoke a week ago, and near the Gompers, on Labor Day, attacked his labor record, made a brief defense of his veto, while governor of New York, of the "full crew bill."

First he read his record as it was printed in the legislative news, adding in a voice of protest:

"Now if any one rises in this country to say I am not a friend of labor, he knows that he is not telling the truth. I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"I do not agree with all that labor proposes," he continued, "I disagreed when I thought demands were made which were not equitable. I fought, for example, the full crew bill. It applied generally to all railroads in the State. I felt that it was a bad precedent."

"